

Jeffrey E. Jordan

COUNSEL

Jeff is a Counsel of the firm who practices principally in the areas of federal securities law and state corporation law.

Practices

Corporate & Securities
Finance
Real Estate

Education

American University, Washington College of Law,
JD, summa cum laude, 1979
Haverford College, BA, 1976

Offices

Washington, DC

Phone

202.857.6473

Email

jeffrey.jordan@afslaw.com

Jeff represents public and private companies in a variety of corporate transactions and corporate governance matters.

Client Work

Jeff's practice involves a wide variety of business acquisitions and dispositions, including stock transactions, assets transactions, and mergers. In 2014, he was recognized as a "recommended" lawyer in mid-market M&A by Chambers USA. He has represented sellers or purchasers in a variety of business transactions, ranging in value from a few million dollars to in excess of $700 million. He recently represented Hi-Tech Pharmacal Co., Inc. in its sale to Akorn, Inc. for $640,000,000 in cash.

Jeff also represents issuers in connection with public and private offerings of equity and debt securities, including initial public offerings and venture capital transactions. Some of the more significant offerings Jeff has handled include the initial public share offering by Globe Specialty Metals, Inc., the initial and follow-on public share offerings by TNS, Inc., public debt and equity offerings by Washington Real Estate Investment Trust and the initial and follow-on public share offerings in the United States by TLC Laser Vision Centers Inc.

He advises public issuers with respect to their reporting obligations under the federal securities laws and counsels boards of directors, audit committees and officers concerning compliance with governance and disclosure obligations under the Dodd-Frank Act, the Sarbanes-Oxley Act, stock exchange rules, and state corporation laws.

Jeff has substantial experience in negotiating and drafting documents involved in the offering of securities and documents involved in the acquisition or sale of businesses. He has substantial experience in the process of filing registration statements and merger proxy statements with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and responding to the SEC's review and comment process.

Jeff has also represented broker-dealers and investment advisers on registration and other regulatory matters, including the US broker-dealer and investment adviser subsidiaries of a major Canadian investment bank and the broker-dealer and investment adviser subsidiaries of a national bank located in Washington, DC.

Previous Work

Jeff began his legal career in 1979 in the Office of Chief Counsel, Division of Market Regulation at the SEC.

Publications, Presentations, & Recognitions

In 2011, Jeff was recognized by Legal 500 for his work in mergers, acquisitions, and buyouts. Jeff has served as a member of the editorial board of The Corporate Compliance & Regulatory Newsletter. His published articles include:

- When Should an Audit Committee Consider Independent Counsel?
- Drafting a Practical and Useful Code of Ethics
- What to do when an audit committee complaint arrives?

Life Beyond the Law

Jeff Jordan is married and has three children. He uses his corporate skills to support charitable causes, assisting in the organization of a therapeutic horseback riding center for disabled veterans, a crisis pregnancy center in Northern Virginia, and the organization of the New York Firefighters 9-11 Disaster Relief Fund, which raised over $150 million for the families of firefighters. He, his wife, and daughter spend much of their spare time riding and caring for their horses.

Bar Admissions

District of Columbia