Investment Funds and Family Offices

William represents various investment funds and family offices, where he provides complete business and legal counsel on broker dealer and investment advisor compliance, fund formation, financing advisory, and mergers and acquisitions.

Emerging Growth

William provides complete business and legal counsel to early and growth stage clients in nearly every sector, with an emphasis on traditional technology, software, digital media and agricultural technology. He represents emerging growth companies at seed financing through mid-stage and works with early stage companies in merger and acquisition negotiations. William also guides clients through exit strategies by acquisition or public offering, and he is often engaged with clients for so long that they themselves become buy-side purchasers of other companies.

William also advises emerging growth clients on establishing intellectual property protections and articulating and executing long-range business strategies. He routinely advises companies on:

Intellectual property transactions and licensing issues

Employment and executive compensation matters

Optimal capitalization strategies

Corporate governance issue

Corporate Governance

William's longstanding corporate governance practice includes advising companies on executive compensation, risk management and fiduciary duties. William has served on the board of directors of several companies and currently serves as the outside member of the board of Entangled Media Corp.

Previous Work

Prior to joining ArentFox Schiff, William was a partner at an international law firm.

Professional Activities
