

Angelica F. Russell-Johnson

ASSOCIATE

Angel brings a wealth of experience in arts administration to the Private Clients, Trusts and Estates practice.

Practices

Private Clients, Trusts & Estates

Education

University of Chicago Law School, JD, 2021

Howard University, BA, summa cum laude, 2018

Offices

Chicago

Phone

312.258.5543

Email

angel.russell@afslaw.com

Angel advises clients on a broad range of estate planning issues with a focus on charitable gift planning. She is committed to pro bono work and recently served as a Public Interest Law Initiative fellow for Just the Beginning: A Pipeline Organization, where she drafted law student curriculum, hypotheticals for mock oral arguments, and evaluation metrics for judges grading oral arguments.

Boards, Memberships & Certifications

- Black Women Lawyers Association, Member
- Howard University Alumni Association, Member
- Law Students for the Creative Arts-Chicago, President (2018-2020)
- Black Law Student Association-Chicago, Community Service Co-Chair (2018-2020)
- Ralph J. Bunche International Affairs Center, Student Ambassador (2017-2018)
- National Endowment for the Humanities (2016)

Publications, Presentations & Recognitions

Publications

- Illinois Estate Tax and Real Property: Best Practices for Residents and Non-Residents, Illinois State Bar Association's Real Property Newsletter (Jan. 2023)

Presentations

- AI in Estate Planning: Ethical and Practical Considerations, Beverly Hills Bar Association, Trusts and Estates Section, Webinar (Oct. 12, 2023)

“Gendered Language Within the African American Community,” College Language Association Convention, Chicago, IL (Mar. 21, 2018)

Recognitions

- Eta Sigma Phi, Member
- Phi Beta Kappa, Howard University Legacy Scholar
- As a Gilman International Scholar in 2017, Angel studied at the University of Hyderabad in Hyderabad, India, where she was a guest lecturer on the role that language plays in reinforcing oppressive sexist, racist, and heteronormative standards.

Professional Activities

As a PILI fellow, Angel worked with Just the Beginning: A Pipeline Organization, a multiracial, nonprofit organization that has served the legal community for over 25 years. She developed curriculum for the Summer Legal Institute, created a First Amendment free speech violation hypothetical for use in mock oral arguments, and drafted legal evaluation metrics for judges to use when grading oral arguments.

Bar Admissions

Illinois