

Tess Hofmann*

ASSOCIATE

Tess is a member of the Real Estate Group.

Practices

Real Estate

Education

Boston University, BS, summa cum laude, 2012

Boston University, BA, magna cum laude, 2012

Fordham University School of Law, JD, magna cum laude, 2020

Offices

Boston

New York

Phone

212.745.9542

Email

tess.hofmann@afslaw.com

Tess works on a wide range of real estate matters including lending, leasing, and purchases and sales. She has focused on representing lenders in providing acquisition, construction, and refinance loans to commercial and residential real estate developers.

Outside of her core practice, Tess has also worked on securitizations, the real estate side of corporate mergers and acquisitions, and assisting trusts and estates clients with strategic transfers.

Tess spent time as a residential real estate agent and as a reporter for real estate industry trade publications before beginning her legal career. She is interested in affordable housing solutions. At Fordham University School of Law, Tess worked in the Federal Income Tax Clinic and was Co-President of the Housing Advocacy Project.

Not admitted in MA. Admitted in NY. Practicing under the supervision of MA Bar members.*

Publications

— “Airbnb in New York City: Whose Privacy Rights Are Threatened by a Government Data Grab?” • Fordham Law Review, Vol. 87 (May 2019)

Professional Activities

Tess enjoys the opportunity to work with pro bono clients alongside her core practice at ArentFox Schiff. She has represented pro bono clients in real estate matters and has also worked on pro bono litigation matters including an equal protection challenge to a state tax.

Bar Admissions

New York