Cameron advises on a range of trust and estate related matters, ensuring estate plans appropriately reflect family dynamics and unique assets. She enjoys distilling complex concepts to discuss and illustrate planning opportunities with clients.

She brings an empathetic approach to her practice and an ability to understand her families' interpersonal relationships. She strives to holistically capture the family dynamic and develop plans that reflect the family's values and achieve the family's financial, charitable, legacy and personal goals.

Cameron also works with exempt organizations to help them obtain tax-exempt status and achieve their mission goals in compliance with their tax-exempt status.
